CANADIAN LEGION
BANQUET AND VIMY
NIGHT BIG SUCCESSLarge Audiences Hear Stirling
Address by Rev. S. J. Waterman

A large gathering turned out last Friday night to celebrate the Annual Banquet and Vimy Night, sponsored by the Lacombe branch of the Canadian Legion, R.S.L., in the Church Hall.

Many from out of town attended and the banquet tables were filled to overflowing. The speaker of the evening, Rev. S. J. Waterman, gave a stirring address on "Comrades of Days Gone By," which was listened to with rapt attention. Mr. Waterman, who was a member of the Old Grenadier Guards (Old Contemptibles) during the Great War, prefaced his speech with some witty remarks and went on to say:

"If in my efforts to minister to your mental and spiritual needs I meet with as much success and approval and give the same satisfaction to those who have ministered to your bodily requirements, I shall feel that I am under no indebtedness to you for receiving the complimentary ticket for the banquet we have just disposed of in such a businesslike manner."

Has Great Advantage
"I often feel that the cook has a great advantage over the public speaker in the matter of response. What a prompt and willing response the efforts of the cook call forth compared with the noble efforts of those who minister to the mind. I must confess that as I witnessed your magnificent efforts, to the fullest extent of your capacity, yet, even extending your capacity, to exhaust every resource of appreciation that the efforts of the cook might receive adequate recognition, as a public speaker I turned green with envy."

But to our subject, "Comrades of Days Gone By." One man readily comes to my mind, Geo H. We. He believed he had been a burglar. If he hadn't, he missed his calling. He was registered as a printer, but sure that in the noble and unskilled ranks of the printers he would be free from the least taint of suspicion. Two things stand out in my memory of George. First, when talking a disquieting bath in an old beer vat and the men were told to submerge themselves head and all, George's head came out from the depths his first remark was: "I wish I had been in here before the war."

A consensus of opinion among the men was that if George had had that experience, no power would have kept his mouth shut.

A Real Hero
"The other memory was as follows: The bombardment of a village was so devastating that to prevent annihilation the troops were withdrawn for a time. An hour later, when the village was re-occupied, George was found lying like a Trojan on the complete wreckage of a house which had buried some of his (Continued on Page Two)

Large Parade Will Be Held
In Lacombe Coronation DayService to be Held in Sales Pavilion; Bonfire and Fireworks Display in the Evening

Plans as to the form which the Coronation celebration would take in Lacombe were definitely decided on at a meeting of the Coronation Committee held in the Town Hall last Thursday night. A representative gathering of delegates of various organizations was present, and committees were appointed to carry out the program decided on. After considerable discussion it was decided that the celebration should take the following form: Commencing at 2 p.m. a parade will be started from downtown, led by the school children of Lacombe and district, including adult organizations, with floats of an imperial nature proceeding to the Central Alberta Pavilion, where a short semi-sacred service will be held. Mementoes in the form of Coronation mugs or medals will be presented to all children from three years of age up to Grade 12, and free ice cream dispensed to all children present.

Joseph Drader, Former Local Resident Dies

Old-timers of the Lacombe district will regret to learn of the passing of Joseph Drader, well-known old-timer and pioneer of this district, who died at Victoria, B.C., on April 14th, following a short illness, according to word received by his son, W. E. Drader of Woody Knoll.

The deceased was 88 years of age. He homesteaded four miles west of Lacombe in the late nineties on a place now owned by Mr. Bowen. One of the old pioneers, he was road boss when the Gulf-Lake Road was first built. About the year 1910 he went to Victoria, B.C., where he has since resided. His wife pre-deceased him in 1915 and he was buried by her side at Victoria on April 7th.

Surviving Mr. Drader are two daughters and five sons, Miss Nora, Victoria; Mrs. M. B. Shook, Edmonton; Ernest of Rimby, William of Lacombe, Earl of Edmonton, Earl of Victoria and Earl of Greenville, California. Another son, Eugene, who served in the 49th Battalion, was killed in action on the Somme.

Road Patrol Demonstrated To Town Councillors

Members of the Town Council gathered Monday morning to watch a demonstration of the road patrol which the Council is considering purchasing. The patrol, which is a scarifier and blade, worked under heavy conditions on Glas Street.

Councillor T. Wilkes, chairman of the Public Works committee, was favorably impressed with the performance of the machine, but stated that no definite decision had been made regarding the purchase of the patrol. This matter will probably be decided at the next regular meeting of the Council, to be held next Tuesday.

Permit Necessary to Burn Grass, Rubbish

Spring is undoubtedly here, and with it comes the usual cleaning up. Fires, burning rubbish, have been seen all over town this past week, and home owners are reminded that a permit to burn grass, papers and rubbish of all kinds must be obtained at the Town Office. There is no charge for these permits.

Building permits are necessary before any construction work of any kind can be undertaken. These may be obtained at the Town Office for only a small fee.

Householders and residents are asked to co-operate in obtaining a permit before taking any steps in construction work.

T. Henderson Wins

Show, Edmonton

Carrying home three first prizes and two second prizes in the cattle, Thomas Henderson, local farmer, returned from the Edmonton Spring Stock Show recently.

Mr. Henderson's prizes were as follows: First prize, carload of yearlings; first and second groups of five; first prize, single steer; second, baby beef calf.

Blackfalds Resident Passes Away

Mrs. J. Lang, well-known resident of the Blackfalds district, passed away quietly at her home Tuesday morning. Mrs. Lang had been ailing for some time.

The funeral is being held at 2:00 o'clock Thursday afternoon in Blackfalds. Lacombe Funeral Home has charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Lang is survived by her husband, two daughters and one son.

Injures Hand in Truck Tire Blow-Out

Inflating a truck tire, C. Oster-

camp of Park's garage sustained two broken fingers and a lacerated face when the tire suddenly blew out on Monday.

Mr. Ostercamp was immediately removed to the Lacombe Hospital, where Dr. Locke attended to his injuries. He was able to leave the hospital Thursday noon.

To Be Extradicted

Another chapter in the drama of the Nova Scotia schooner, Gypsum Queen, has been written with the ruling of the United States Supreme Court against Captain Freeman Halford, in his two-year fight against extradition to Canada.

The captain has been in jail at Manchester, N.H., since December, 1934. He will now be returned to Canada to face charges of fraud arising from sinking of Gypsum Queen during the world war.

Each school representative in the parade will be asked to carry a banner, bearing the name of the school, together with its insignia or crest. Rural schools have been invited to take part, a very interesting program is followed by the College in that the work in the College is followed by the students in attendance. This helps to develop an able, self-reliant citizen.

The College also offers very practical courses in Printing and in Household Economics and Sewing, concluded the speaker.

A very enjoyable musical program was then given by various artists from the College, comprising selections by the male quartet, whose members were Messrs. Don Norman, Robert Shearer, Joe Hardy and Benjamin Glazer; readings by Miss Brickman, solos by Mrs. H. K. Martin, a piano duet by the Misses Margaret Meyer and Bertha Leiske, and solos by Mr. B. Glazer.

Musical numbers were accompanied on the piano by M. Monks, who was chairman of the Music Department at the College. The various numbers were thoroughly enjoyed by all, with the Scotch songs by Mrs. Martin making a high note.

G. T. Jackson moved a hearty vote of thanks to the artists and appreciative applause shown by the ovation which followed.

Provincial Session
To Close Soon

By T. B. WINDROSS
EDMONTON.—Adjournment of the legislative assembly early in June will take place late in the week after one of the most disturbing sessions in the history of the province. The division of the province into constituencies reached a point where to expect healing of the wounds seems impossible, according to observers.

Things have been said and done that can hardly be forgotten. In some quarters an attempt is being made to reconcile conflicting groups in the Social Credit party and a being denied that any real division exists, but it is well to remember that up to the very last minute before things came to a head in the legislature representatives of the government were denying that a split existed, despite the fact that it had been apparent in the caucus meetings for some time.

During the last few days the House rushed its legislation along at a faster rate than is usual, in an endeavor to clean business up before the week-end, but it was found impossible to get all the bills passed and so workings were decided on this week.

The main act not yet brought in is the Social Credit Statutes Act, over which there has been much dispute. The new act will replace two acts now on the statutes and which have not been put into force since being passed. It will consolidate all acts dealing with the implementation of the new economic order.

The insurgent group among the Social Crediters has been insisting that their Social Credit Act should be passed. (Continued on Back Page)

Musical Program Presented
At Board of Trade MeetingMembers of Canadian Junior College Provide Splendid Talent; Attendance Is Small

It was unfortunate that only a sparse attendance was present at the regular meeting of the Lacombe and District Board of Trade, held in the Adelphi Hotel on Monday night, April 12th. More certainly should have taken advantage of the splendid program provided by members of the Canadian Junior College, and those absent missed a real treat. Nevertheless, those members with their wives who attended, enjoyed every minute of the program. After a few items of Board of Trade business were dispensed with, Chairman J. S. McCormick, called on Prof. C. W. Shankel, Registrar and in charge of the Science Department of Canadian Junior College, who in a concise and pleasing manner outlined the aims and objects of the work carried on by the College, and its scope.

"Seventh-Day Adventists believe in the principle of a modern education which laid down the fundamental purpose of education as the harmonious development of the mind, heart, and hand."

"In educating the mind of the student the College course is outlined by the Department of Education, leading to senior matriculation. Besides this, strong Pre-Medical and Pre-Nursing courses are outlined, which prepare students to go directly to nursing and medical colleges. A course is also given in Theology and in Science."

"In the education of the heart, religion must necessarily enter in to develop a good, moral citizen, M. Rudolph, at home and Alfred, who resides in Portland, Oregon."

Clive Will Hold Baseball
Tournament May 24

CLIVE.—The Clive Baseball Club held a meeting Monday night to organize their team for the coming season. Officers for the year were elected as follows: Mr. N. Longstreet, president; McCormick, secretary; treasurer, and L. Pears, manager.

It was decided to hold a tournament in Clive on May 24, and the secretary was instructed to contact teams from adjacent towns, and have them join the tournament.

Victim of Accident
Receives Stitches

Bruce Bailey of Lloydminster received three lacerations in his head as a result of a car smash-up on the main highway, near the town of Lloydminster, between 2:30 and 3:30 a.m. Monday morning.

Bailey, returning from Windsor, Ont., where he had travelled to purchase a new 1937 Plymouth sedan, braked his car quickly on seeing a stray horse on the road in front of him. His speed, combined with the sudden braking, caused the car to swerve into the ditch. The auto rolled over three times and finally crashed into a telephone pole.

The driver, alone, was uninjured, suffered a bad gash on his head and a bruised body. Ted George of Laird Motors passed along the road a few minutes after the accident and rushed the injured man to Lacombe hospital, where Dr. Locke attended him.

The car is a complete wreck, with the top and one side crushed in by the impact of the rolling auto. Damage is fully covered by insurance, according to Mr. Bailey.

Loses Fingers In Buzz Saw Accident

Jack Nell lost three fingers and a thumb in a buzz saw accident Monday on L. McEachern's farm. He was rushed to Lacombe hospital, where Dr. Locke attended him. The injured man was given to him by Dr. Locke.

He was released from the hospital Wednesday afternoon, his progress being "satisfactory."

Two Die Suddenly in Rimby District

Two sudden deaths shocked the Rimby district Tuesday morning. William H. Jones, 35 years of age, a farmer four miles east of Rimby was found dead in his bed. Mr. Jones lived in the Rimby district for about one year, moving there from Kipp, Alta. His death was presumably due to heart failure. He is survived by his wife whom he married less than two years ago, and his brother near Rimby.

Mrs. Sebastian Grunbach was also a victim of death Tuesday morning, died suddenly from strangulation caused by a gaffe. Mrs. Grunbach has lived seven miles south of Rimby for many years, and is a well-known figure in that community. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Otto Heileman, of Rimby, and two sons, Rudolph, at home and Alfred, who resides in Portland, Oregon.

Alberta Roads Draw Tourists Aid to Farmers

Alberta is to spend nearly $2,000,000 on improvements of highways, according to the provincial government's plans for the present year. The bulk of this is for new construction.

Making of such expenditures is a direct benefit to the province in more ways than one, according to officials of the Alberta Motor Association.

For instance, it has been shown in a survey made by the United States Bureau of Public Roads that every $1 spent on roads starts a movement which results in the distribution of $3.15 in wages and materials. Also, for every four men put to work on highway, there are seven additional employed in 24 different industries.

Thus it will be seen that Alberta stands to materially benefit from the launching of a substantial road program.

Just as road building means more business, so do improved highways mean greater returns to the farmer or primary producer from the tourist industry.

Helps in Many Ways
The tourist dollar can help a lot in making business better all round. It is cash business, too. The farmer's market is widened by the building of good highways, which will bring the tourist trade to his door.

There will be increased demand for Alberta farm produce, made by a consuming public that depends upon the purchasing of the daily necessities in as fresh a condition as possible, and that is at the farmer's door.

New and permanent highways will immediately boost the retail sales of farm produce. That is why every farmer should be out boosting for the launching of a big roads program in this province.

"Art thou now? I wouldn't thought it. And how many sheep has the got?"

"Let me see, I think about two million."
"Two million! Oosh! And what does the do at lamb's time?"

Sport-Scope
By JACK McCAUGHERTY

The experts have their heads together once more. They're debating about big league baseball this time, and when the smoke clears off we find their verdict. Things are cloudy, of course, but they seem to have their minds set on the New York Yankees for first slot in the American League. They place Detroit running a close second, with Boston and Cleveland fighting it out for third position. Washington, Chicago, St. Louis and Philadelphia will follow in that order. At least, so they say.

Many eyes will be focused on the second-year actions of last season's sensational rookies. Who? Joe DiMaggio of the champion Yanks and Cleveland's sensational 18-year-old hurling wonder, Bob Feller. Can they keep up their terrific pace? That's just one of the many questions to be answered in the forthcoming campaign.

In the National League the St. Louis Cards are picked to finish on top, with Chicago, not far behind them. The last-season champion Giants are rated no better than third from the top. Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Brooklyn and Philadelphia are called to finish in their respective positions.

There will be no love lost between the Cleveland and Brooklyn clubs this campaign. The Cleveland gang claim that their Feller can "smoke 'em down" even faster than the one-and-only Van Lingle Mungo. But if you say anything like that around Brooklyn, you're lucky to get out alive. In "them there parts" they speak, eat and sleep Mungo, and you can't do anything to change their habits. This squabble will last all season, so you might as well get set on it right now. Only time has a chance to settle it.

least in their noble ranks we see our comrades who lie on Vimy Ridge."

W. Anderson was chairman of the meeting, which opened with "O Canada" and invocation by Rev. R. B. Layton. After the banquet a toast to "The King" was proposed, followed with one verse of the National Anthem.

"Fallen Comrades" was joyfully referred to by Stan Puffer, after which the audience stood in silence for one minute.

The "Last Post" and "Reveille" were sounded by Comrade C. Braithwaite. Comrade T. Wilks rendered a pleasing song, suitable for the occasion, "The Trumpeter," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. R. Warren.

Following this, a toast was proposed to the "Canadian Legion and Kindred Organizations" by H. J. Ford and ably responded to by T. Wilks.

Police Chief S. L. Warrior moved a hearty vote of thanks to the guest speaker, which was heartily carried amid applause.

Minimum Fine System Dropped

Removal of the minimum fine provision from the Vehicle and Highway Traffic Act was decided upon by the Alberta legislature recently, when dealing with a new amending bill in committee of the whole.

The committee also approves of sections of the bill that provide for compulsory dimming of headlights when motorists meet on the highways, lights of cycles on the highways at night, and right of police to make inspections of cars when in operation.

The house favored the proposal to eliminate the $5 minimum fine and costs for the first offence of those convicted of infractions under the Act as it stood previously.

As a result, a magistrate will have the right to impose a fine of $1 and costs, for example, or any nominal amount, as he might desire. Previously, he could not impose a first offence fine of less than $5.

Another change which the house approved was an amendment which reduces the distance of 300 feet ahead, over which car lights were supposed to show objects clearly, to 200 feet. This is being done for the purpose of curbing the glare light menace, which has been the subject of complaints by motorists from time to time.

"Any step in the interests of greater safety for motorists has the strongest possible endorsement of our organization," said an official of the Alberta Motor Association, which is keeping a careful eye on legislation of special interest to motorists.

Johnnie (looking out of the window)—"Oh, mother, motor car has just gone by as big as a barn."

Mother—"Johnnie, why do you exaggerate so terribly? I've told you forty million times about that habit of yours, and it doesn't do a bit of good!"

To Commemorate Lacombe's Forty-fifth Anniversary

Services to Be Held in St. Andrew's Church; Barnetts Claimed to Be Original Lacombe Pioneers

On Sunday, April 18th, the 45th anniversary of the beginning of Christian work in Lacombe will be commemorated at St. Andrew's United Church, Lacombe. All old-timers in particular are invited to attend the services.

It is claimed that the real pioneers of Lacombe were the Barnetts—John and Ned—on whose homestead part of the town now stands. There was a "stopping place" further north, opposite the residence of W. W. Hornby. Jake Dolmage was another pioneer and a real character in his way. He was postmaster and kept the letters in a drawer in a table in his log cabin by the track. People looking for their mail would search the drawer, and if he were out, would help themselves to their mail, if any.

First White Woman
Mrs. Glass, now Mrs. Day, was the first white woman. She lived for a while in John Barnett's log house, until a house was built across the street. The first white girl born in Lacombe still lives here. The first white boy, born in '92, was Nelson Flewelling, whose father, Hiram, lived with the Barnetts. Nelson is now located. Nelson was named after the Rev. John Nelson, as was the school, who was the first missionary to Indians and whites in the district.

The old freight shed was an important place for pioneers. For many it was their only sleeping place. It was also the meeting place on Sundays. It is said that everybody went to church then, no matter what denomination had charge of the services. It was here that the Methodist and Presbyterian churches were organized.

Only Three Living
Only three of the charter members of these churches are now living in the district: Mrs. Day, Messrs. Hiram Flewelling and Fred Switzer. The log school house, built in 1893, was used for services until the churches were built. The Methodist church was dedicated in September, 1894, and the Presbyterian church a year later. St. Cyprian's church was consecrated on Dec. 22nd, 1901. The Methodist and Presbyterian churches united in April, 1922.

To Hold Free Show At Avalon Wednesday

A free show is being held in the Avalon Theatre next Wednesday, when Laird Motors presents a series of interesting talking pictures, regarding the motor industry. The pictures, which will be shown in the theatre of Canada, will be shown in the afternoon and evening, at 4 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Children are especially requested to attend the afternoon performance.

'SIT DOWN' STRIKES NOTHING NEW

Indians Used Similar Tactics When C.P.R. Built Railway Across the Prairies

MOOSE JAW.—The wave of sit-down strikes in the U.S. and Canada has recalled to pioneers of the western plains how one Indian chief and his tribe conducted a sit-down strike that actually halted construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway across the prairies to the Pacific Coast.

In 1882, Chief John Piapot viewed with alarm the decrease of buffalo that followed the arrival of the railway construction crews. Hunters for the railway companies would stage huge hunts, killing scores of buffalo and clearing out entire districts.

Camped on Right-of-Way
At a council war he thundered warnings to his Cree tribesmen. Then they trekked to the scene of construction work. Along the right-of-way of the railway company they camped in their hundreds, with the tent of Chief Piapot placed directly along the path of the twin ribbons of steel.

Railwaymen did not want to precipitate trouble with the incensed and armed Indians, so they appealed to the capital of the Dominion at Ottawa, and instructions were forwarded to members of the Mounted Police.

A sergeant and a constable, clad in the traditional scarlet and gold of the present Royal Canadian Mounted Police force, galloped across the plains to the scene of the sit-down strike. There they met the chief.

Cut Down the Tent
First the police argued; then they issued an ultimatum. At the end of 15 minutes, Chief Piapot and his band had not moved. Immediately the sergeant slashed the guy ropes of the Indian tent, permitting the tent to fall on the Indian chief and his band men.

There were shouts of indignation at the humiliation visited upon their chief, and an angry mob threatened to kill the policemen. The chief, seeing his strategy likely to result in bloodshed, halted the trouble and agreed to move on.

The eventual complaint of the Indians, however, that hunters for the railway construction crews killed too many buffalo, was thus brought to the attention of the Federal authorities, and there were stricter regulations issued, reducing the waste killing.

LAUNDRY "GABLE"

The girls were held at their jobs recently when they learned that Greasley was to be transferred to another branch of the firm. Handsome Mr. Greasley is shown arriving at the laundry after the girls won their strike.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

At All Christian Science churches next Sunday, the subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Doctrine of Atonement." The following is one of the Scriptural quotations contained in the Lesson-Sermon: "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me" (Psalm 51:10). One of the correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, is as follows (page 242): "Through repentance, spiritual baptism, and regeneration, mortals put off their material beliefs and false individuality. It is only a question of time when they shall all know me (God), from the least of them unto the greatest."

M.D. of Lorne Has Office Remodelled

The municipal offices of the District of Lorne, located here, have recently been remodelled and redecorated to conform with the addition of an adjoining suite of rooms, formerly occupied by the offices of Dr. Wm. A. Henry of Bentley. The re-arrangement allows for a large council chamber extending across the entire width of the building at the rear, while the front portion is occupied by the office of the secretary, Harold Hopkins, and by the public reception hall. The rooms have been re-decorated and as a whole the office is a decided credit to the village of Bentley.

Rimby

RIMBEY.—Among those attending the district assembly of the Church of the Nazarene, from Rimby, held at Red Deer last week, were Rev. and Mrs. William Humble, Miss Irene Wright, president of the Young People's Society; Miss Fern Cork, Miss Dorothy Vliet, Miss Marie Rimby, and Miss Velva Wright. George Savage was delegate from the Y.P.S. and W. H. Cork represented the Church Board. Mrs. J. J. Goings, who is attending the meetings, will remain in Red Deer for an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Wiley, and Mr. Wiley. A party of young people motored to Red Deer for the Wednesday session, returning the same day.

Mrs. Cecil Pearson was a gracious hostess to the Leedale Women's Institute when the April meeting was held at her home recently. Final arrangements were made for the dance and plays to be held in the Leedale Community Hall on April 23rd. Mrs. Kenneth Willits was chosen delegate to the coming Calgary convention. Mrs. E. Westlake read a very interesting paper on Farm Life and a contest sponsored by the social service of last week's meeting was won by Miss Laura Withers. There were 18 members present.

Weed Inspectors Appointed
The municipal council for the Blindman district met in the council chambers at Rimby on Saturday, March 27. Among other business was the appointing of four weed inspectors, with Mr. H. Hayden of the Monte Vista district, north of Rimby, as chief inspector. Mr. Hayden will have charge of Divisions 1 and 2; Division 3 will be in charge of E. Dalgleish; Division 4, Thomas Wildman, and Division 5, U. Rosenbach.

Notice was given that 37 parcels of land will be up for sale this week, unless priorly redeemed. Reeve W. J. Jersey gave his report as one of the deputations which waited on Mr. W. A. W. Wiley, at the 23rd week on business pertaining to the gravelling of the Bentley-Rimby highway. Mr. Jersey stated that the minister had made no definite statement as to whether or not the highway of E. Dalgleish, Division 4, Thomas Wildman, and Division 5, U. Rosenbach.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Church of England voted $5 toward the recently organized Boy Scout and Cub movement at a meeting held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. A. Cotton. The ladies also decided to hold a tea and sale of home-made cooking during Coronation week. Mrs. Arthur Franklin, the president, was chairman.

The World of Wheat

By H. G. L. STRANGE
Director, "Crop Testing Plan"

A perfect wheat is badly needed by farmers in the rust areas of Western Canada.

The rust area comprises the whole of Manitoba, and as well Saskatchewan east of a vertical line running through Shellbrook, Saskatoon and Moose Jaw.

For many years the ablest plant breeders in the United States, Canada and other countries have been endeavoring to produce a suitable rust-resistant wheat. Several varieties have now been licensed for use in Canada, and other varieties are still under test.

Thatcher is the most widely distributed rust-resistant variety at present. It is a few days earlier than Marquis, somewhat higher yielding, and is rust-resistant to a high degree.

Thatcher has about the same milling and baking qualities as Marquis. It has as well good strength of straw.

The defects of Thatcher are that the kernels are not of such a good shape as the Marquis berry, and as well they have rather a dull color, so that the grain grades, on the average, about one-fifth of a grade less than Marquis.

Other licensed rust-resistant wheats are Renown (a product of the Donair Rust Resistant Laboratory, Winnipeg) and Apex (developed by the University of Saskatchewan).

Following factors have tended to raise prices—Heavy consumptive demand for wheat in Continental Europe; Spain purchases Argentine wheat; Rain and hail storms may lower yield and quality of Indian crops; Wet weather delays spring field work in Europe; Poland prohibits grain exports; First Argentine corn estimate 20 million bushels below 1936.

Following factors have tended to lower prices—Heavy consumptive demand for wheat in Continental Europe; Argentina and Great Britain; Record South African corn crop; Indian wheat crop estimated at 376 million; Regular demand for grain and Karoo barley in Holland; Germany purchases Turkish rye; favorable new crop prospects in U.S.

Introducing Britain's highest peace-time air estimator to the House of Commons in London, Sir Philip Sassoon, under-secretary for air in the Baldwin cabinet, issued an invitation to Canada to co-operate with the mother country to assure an adequate supply of well-trained pilots for the Royal Air Force. Sir Philip suggested that Canada adopt the policy of Australia and New Zealand, where budding airmen are first trained as cadets at home, then sent to England to complete their training as air force pilots. Canadian airmen believe that many young men in the Dominion, with flying aspirations, would be willing to participate. There are estimated 150 Canadian student fliers already in England, who have made their entry to the R.A.F. on their own finances. A group of fliers in training is shown here taking parachute exercises as part of the pilot training course in England. At the TOP one of Britain's speediest modern fighting aeroplanes is pictured. So many new machines have been, or will be, added to the fighting service that the need for more and more trained pilots is acute. This machine has retractable undercarriage and fully enclosed cockpit. Sir Philip Sassoon, who enunciated the British hope for Canadian assistance, is at the RIGHT.

BENTLEY. — Friends of Robert Thorp will be pleased to hear that he has been transferred from Edmonton to Grande Prairie to take charge of a wholesale store and warehouse being opened up there by the Bruce Robinson Electric Co. for whom he has been working for some time past.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McPherson and Mr. and Mrs. Sambrook arrived home from their trip to the Coast on Thursday last.

G. V. Johnson of Iowa was a business caller in Bentley on Tuesday last.

Mrs. Hergott and son Clifford were in Edmonton on Saturday.

Mrs. J. C. Carritt was a week-end visitor in Edmonton.

Miss Marianne Pearson, B.Sc., and Miss Flora Williams, B.Sc., were in Bentley last week, conferring with the housewives to assist them with their electric lighting problems.

A thundering dramatic story of the famous French Foreign Legion comes to the screen of the Avalon Theatre this Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Ronald Coleman, Claudette Colbert, Victor McLaglen and Rosalind Russell, with a supporting cast of 10,000, join in presenting one of the most famous stories of modern times.

Ronald Coleman, a "legionnaire of the doomed," is saved through the love of "Cigarette," played by Claudette Colbert. Coleman, however, has become enraptured with the charms of Rosalind Russell, while Victor McLaglen is madly in love with Claudette Colbert.

The unravelling of this tangle, the plot which works its way up to a thrilling climax, and the tender, romantic scenes combine to present an outstanding picture, with superb acting throughout.

How the Expression "Kick the Bucket" Was First Started

When we say that "Jones has kicked the bucket" it is an irrelevant way of announcing that Jones has died. And here's the incident that gave birth to this expression. A certain man named Belsaver attempted to commit suicide by hanging himself to a beam. He stood on a bucket, adjusted the noose about his neck and then kicked the bucket from under his feet. He was rescued, however, in time to be resuscitated. When he regained consciousness he was much surprised and disappointed to find himself in the land of the living. "What does this mean?" he asked, looking around. "I thought I kicked the bucket."

MISSOURI USES GASOLINE

The benefits of a reasonable gasoline tax and legal prohibition against diversion of highway funds to other purposes, is well illustrated in the experience of Missouri.

Missouri's gasoline tax was set at 2 cents a gallon in 1918 and a constitutional amendment prohibited its increase before 1928. The same amendment prohibited use of gasoline tax for any purpose other than road building.

Today, although Missouri ranks 18th in area, 11th in population and ninth in automobile registration, the state ranks sixth in mileage of improved roads.

The Missouri highway department has insisted that its roads show need for improvement before expenditures are made, with the result that there are few roads in the state which do not support themselves from gasoline tax and registration fees on cars actually using the roads.

The Council passed a resolution "that this council will contribute to the Full Time Health Unit for another three years in co-operation with the Provincial Government."

E. W. Simpson was appointed assessor for the year 1937. "That the proposition put to the council by the Western Globe, Lacombe, regarding the supplying of the paper to each newspaper in the Municipal District, be tabled," was a resolution carried.

Accounts, totalling in all $961.12, were passed.

It was decided to hold a special meeting of the Council on Monday, April 19th.

Tax on Trading In Grain Proposed To Wheat Inquiry

Vancouver Grain Men and Shippers Present Views to Turgeon Commission

(Special Correspondence)

VANCOUVER. — Vancouver views of shippers and exporters were placed on the records of the Turgeon Grain Commission sessions which ended here Friday, and the commission moved to Edmonton to resume its prairie hearings.

One of the last witnesses to be heard here, F. W. Rudolph, grain exporter, member of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange and prairie farm owner, urged some means be devised by governments for obtaining revenue from trading operations on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange. He also favored a minimum price to producers of 75 cents a bushel, Fort William basis.

Buyers Want Free Market

Robert McKee, Vancouver exporter, who had previously proposed appointment of a wheat market commissioner to develop foreign markets, explained such a commissioner would have nothing to do with the price of wheat or its actual sale. Foreign buyers wanted a free and open market and objected to fixed prices, he said.

Lowering of the domestic freight rate to the level of the export rate was urged by Dr. Lyle Telford, B.C. leader of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation. The high domestic rate, he said, was putting a heavy burden on British Columbia consumers and prairie producers alike.

Grain for domestic use and feed stuffs for B.C. farmers were far too costly because of the domestic rate, he charged. He pointed out the export rate through Vancouver from either Calgary or Edmonton was 20 cents and the domestic rate 42½ cents.

Invent Spray to Kill Dandelions

WINNIPEG. — Through the efforts of W. H. Silversides, University of Manitoba graduate of 1934, now doing post-graduate work, and Dr. G. P. McRostie, former professor of Agronomy in the University of Manitoba, a spray has been invented which will eradicate the dandelion. According to information which appears authentic, the solution must be distributed twice during the summer, once in mid-July and again in mid-August.

Mr. Silversides states that the grass when administered with his spray will grow thicker and very much greener. Very little of the spray is needed to cover a vast field. Copper nitrate mixed in proportion of 1½ of crystal to 7½ gallons of water produces enough solution to cover 1000 square feet of ground.

names instead of numbers to various grades of wheat which, he believed, would facilitate sales to the Orient. Japan was buying Canadian flour for its gluten content and using it for flavoring sauces, he said.

Fear that establishment of a central wheat board would bring about centralized shipping and ruin merchants engaged in export of certain by-products of wheat, was expressed by E. E. Burke of Vancouver. Continuity and availability of shipping space in small lots was essential to the business in which he is engaged, he said.

Donald McLean, manager, Pacific Elevators, Ltd., explained public and semi-public terminal elevator operations. The chief function of the public elevator, he said, was storage.

Newspaper, Printed in 1800 Tells of Time When Napoleon Bonaparte's Name Was News

Paper, Printed in the New England States, Belongs to George Holston; Reviews Death of Washington

For Sale — A stout, healthy, active Negro wench.

This advertisement appears in a copy of the Utter County Gazette, printed in the New England States on Jan. 4, 1800. The newspaper, yellow and colored with age, is owned by Geo. Holston of Lacombe.

The news columns of the paper are given over almost exclusively to the death of General Washington, the first president of the newly-formed republic. The address of the second president, John Quincy Adams, is given in full, as are the addresses from the Senate and Speaker of the House.

Startling matters are printed in the paper, Napoleon is successful on several fronts in Europe; the Austro-Russian army has been defeated at Glarus; the French Army of Napoleon has defeated another Austrian army on the Rhine River. Four British frigates have successfully captured two Spanish frigates having upwards of three and a half million dollars on board.

All this exciting news is printed in the paper of Jan. 4. These events occurred some time late in the fall of 1799.

No Atlantic cable being laid, it was necessary to obtain all news from European newspapers sent by mail, the ships carrying these mails being at the mercy of the winds and tides.

Quaint Advertising Department store managers were no slouches at writing advertising "copy" in those days. An advertisement in the paper reads as follows: "Luther Andres and Co. have this day

Been opening goods, both fresh and dry.

He has received near every kind. That you in any store can find. And as I purchase by the Bail, I am determined to retail.

For READY PAY, a little lower. Than ever have been had before. "I wish my brethren mean to live, But as for Credit shall not give."

I would not live to rouse your passions.

For Credit here is out of fashion. My friends and buyers one and all. It will pay you well to give a call. You always may find me by my sign.

A few rods from the house divine."

That advertisement these days would be a world-beater. Evidently they had the same troubles with credit in those days as the merchants have today, but Mr. Andres was optimistic when he said "For credit here is out of fashion."

The paper also states that Bonaparte has returned from Egypt and left his army "in a satisfactory state."

Bringing to us as it does news of events, the history of which our grandfathers learned in school, a newspaper of this sort is a source of interesting and wonderful reading.

Tees Tattle Tales

By TATTLE

TEES.—The young people of Tees on Saturday evening last passed several resolutions and on Sunday the baseball team started practice. They are going to try and put a hardball team on the field this year, in addition to a young ladies soft-ball team. This should live things up a little. Then the older section of the Young People's Club discussed the question of the advisability of fixing up the old tennis courts, as many think that this will be a good year to loosen up the joints and muscles a little too strenuous to begin with. Committees were formed in every line of sport and the balance of us are looking forward to some momentous decisions.

Richard Lakeman spent the weekend at Lacombe. He says that everyone was talking golf there, and if not out for a few practice swings they were looking over their equipment to see what was needed for a big year.

The vets from Tees enjoyed the hospitality of the vets of Lacombe at the "Vint" dinner recently. The next day there was a run on the town pump.

Spring Work Starts Practically all the farmers in the district started some spring work on Monday and are now at it in full swing. Quite a number are trying out the different brands of fertilizers and it is to be hoped they prove satisfactory in this soil.

"Don" McDougall, "while cranking a car," got a nasty slap on the wrist by the crank and has been missing from school as it is very painful and his writing hand is the injured member.

Another one of the McDougall family, "Ken," has just returned from Montana, where he spent a few days inspecting his oil wells. He reports the roads in very bad shape, with a great many detours between here and the international boundary line. He also ran into a couple of nasty dust storms.

J. Brown, of the power company paid a repairing visit to town, putting lightning arrestors on the transformer poles. This should be helpful during the spring storms.

Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham motored to Bowden over the weekend to visit their farm at that point. Mr. Cunningham reports that we are much further ahead with spring work up here. The reason for this is that we missed the last big snow storm that almost buried that part of the province.

On Wednesday of last week a crowd of young people went from Gull Lake to Spruceville district to chivaree Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Gibbons (nee Jessie Ferlie) at their new home.

Can You Take It? Try Keeping Bees

Most of us like honey—but at the mere suggestion of keeping our own bees we experience a most uncomfortable sensation. Yet there are hundreds of men in Alberta who handle bees as a profitable sideline with no more discomfort than if they were feeding lambs.

The modern honey bee is really quite civilized—not a beast of prey ready to pounce upon any unwary passerby. When properly treated she is a very busy, inoffensive little creature, who holds no grudge against anyone who treats her person and property with due respect.

Most people have been stung (by bees) a few times during their lives and know whether they can take it. If, after a number of stings, the poison causes no further discomfort, you're a born bee-keeper; but if it repeatedly causes real agony, stay away from bees.

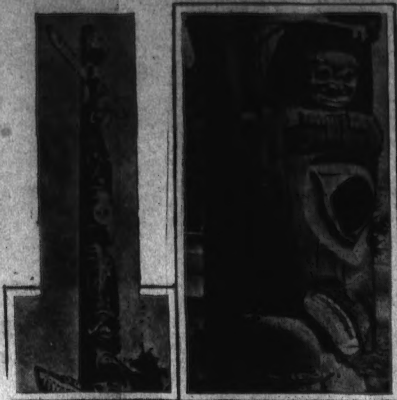

According to the Dominion Experimental Station, Lacombe, bee-keeping requires comparatively little time—less than half an hour a week for each colony is usually ample, and that for only six months in the year.

Cost to Start The initial cost of supplies is only about $25 for two colonies; for this amount it is possible to purchase a complete beginner's outfit, including two hives, bees and necessary equipment. With a little care and the least luck, the two colonies will almost pay for this outfit in the first year, and after that they will usually show a comfortable profit.

Bees have been kept at the Dominion Experimental Station, Lacombe, for over 20 years, and have produced a yearly average of 128 pounds of honey per colony. The highest yield for a single colony ever produced there was 348 pounds.

The Lacombe Station has no bees or equipment for sale; however, it has for distribution literature on every phase of bee-keeping, which is free, on request.

Thunderbird Pole Given Vancouver

By JOHN B. TOMPKINS
Central Press Canadian Correspondent

VANCOUVER, B.C.—Unlike modern to-be-torn-up-later treaties of the European fashion, a mainstay of the Squamish Indian tribe.

The occasion was the formal presentation, in Indian fashion, of a tall totem pole to the city of Vancouver.

"This pole," the spokesman for the Indian nation declared simply, "typifies our friendship."

Recalls "Paleface" Arrival And such it does. The Thunderbird totem, as the Indians aptly call it, is the redman's inimitable record in primitive art of the arrival to their section of the first white men. It stands now, five-eyed, eagle-beaked and with outstretched wings atop Prospect Point, the towering bluff which guards the narrow entrance to Vancouver's harbor.

Directly across this salt-water gorge lies the Squamish Indian reserve. On the 13th of June, 1792, forty Indian canoes put out from this village to meet two very strange and curious craft. They were the British ships Discovery and Chatham, under the command of Captain George Vancouver.

Every seventh generation, according to the legends of the Squamish tribe, brings some great event, be it good or bad. Fortunately for the crews of the two British navy ships, the Indians welcomed them as the great event of that generation.

Instead of loading their canoes with war-painted bows and arrows, they filled their dug-outs with salmon. Thus the totem pole now standing in Vancouver's Stanley Park was conceived and peopled, relations established that were, according to Andy Paul of the present day Squamishes, to prove useful to Great Britain in later territorial disputes.

Land Was Divided "Many years later, when Britain did not know whether she could hold this coast or not," he says, "she asked our people for their help. The then Chief Capilano said, 'I give you that side (the present Stanley Park). You fight there. I and my people will keep this side and fight for you here.' Stanley Park, as a matter of record, still belongs to the British admiralty and Chief Capilano's people still have his old hunting grounds in the form of an Indian reserve.

The Thunderbird totem, however, represents something else. Like all such poles, covered from top to bottom with hundreds of symbols and distorted carvings of animals, spirits, scary-eyed birds with monster beaks, skulls and primitive weapons, the Thunderbird is the written form of a primitive people's tribal legend.

Guarded Tribal Destinies In the beginning of the world, so the story goes, the Creator sent the Thunderbird to live in the mountain wilds of Garibaldi Park, some fifty miles north of Vancouver. From the top of 8,727 foot Mount Garibaldi, "old Uncle Raven" was to watch over the world and its peoples; guide particularly, of course, the destinies of the Squamish nation.

"On the Thunderbird totem," explains Chief Mathias Joe Capilano of the Squamish tribe, "I have carved the old Thunderbird and his wife, and his son and daughter, each of whom is the lightning and the thunder, and one part of the great storms, the wind, the snow, the hail or the rain."

Beyond White Man "At the bottom you see the great sea monster and the great land monster," he takes great pains to point out, "that lie in the cradle of the world."

Even after this elucidation, the attending civic officials and cultural leaders of Vancouver were none the less in a position to decide whether to expand operations.

Bees have been kept at the Dominion Experimental Station, Lacombe, for over 20 years, and have produced a yearly average of 128 pounds of honey per colony. The highest yield for a single colony ever produced there was 348 pounds.

Recipes

SCALLOPED EGGS WITH

CHEESE Six hard cooked eggs, 4 tablespoons butter, 4 tablespoons flour, 2 cups milk, 1/2 cup grated cheese, 1-3 cup buttered bread crumbs, salt and pepper.

Cut eggs in half. Place in buttered baking dish. Make cream sauce of butter, flour and milk. Add grated cheese and seasonings. Pour sauce over the eggs. Sprinkle top with crumbs and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until brown.

MAPLE OATMEAL COOKIES Two and one-half cups fine oatmeal, 1 cup of maple syrup, 1/2 cup water, 2 1/2 cups flour, 1 cup shortening, 1 teaspoon soda.

Boil water and syrup together. Add soda, then add the shortening. Cool slightly. Add to dry ingredients and allow the mixture to cool thoroughly before rolling out.

MAPLE SYRUP PIE Two cups of maple syrup, 2 egg yolks, 1 cup milk, 2 tablespoons of corn starch, a pinch of salt. Boil milk and syrup together. Add starch which has been blended with a little cold milk. Cook in double boiler, stirring constantly for five minutes. Pour over the beaten eggs and return to double boiler. Cook five minutes, pour into baked pastry shell. Cover top with meringue made from two egg-whites.

MAPLE SYRUP SAUCE One cup of maple syrup, 1 teaspoon flour, 1 teaspoon butter. This maple syrup sauce is for puddings or ice cream. Melt the butter, add the flour, cook until frothy. Slowly add syrup and boil one minute. Serve hot or cold.

ENGLISH LESSON It was Timothy's first day at school. He walked up to the teacher's desk and announced "I ain't got no pencil!"

Shocked at his expression, the teacher exclaimed, "Oh, Timothy, I have no pencil!" A sympathetic look crossed the small boy's face, and he replied, "You ain't either? Well, we're both in the same fix."

be the one passed this session, but there are reports that a compromise has been reached and the bill will be a merging of features in both the government's and the insurgents' bill.

What action will be taken in connection with the reduction of debts is not clear at present. The final decision may not come before the House re-assembles in June, but in the meantime, the present moratorium is likely to be extended so as to give plenty of time to prepare adequate legislation that can be secure from attacks in the courts. There is a strong feeling among the Social Credit members that it is useless to place legislation on the statute which is certain to be declared ultra vires.

Restoration of the right of appeal from decisions of the Debt Adjustment Board to a judge of the Supreme Court of Alberta is provided for in the bill to amend and consolidate the Debt Adjustment Act, which is now before the legislature. The right to appeal was removed from the old act during the special session in August.

A separate set will likely be required to provide the power for declaring an extension of the moratorium law in effect.

Much enthusiasm has been awakened in Edmonton over the announcement that this city has been selected as the terminus of an international air line to the Yukon and Alaska and as one of the key points on the projected all-red air-line around the world. Contract for the weekly mail and passenger service from Edmonton to Whitehorse, to begin about July 5th, has been awarded to United Air Transport Company, Grant McConachie, manager. The new air-line will give a much needed outlet to Alaska and the Yukon and incidentally it will place Edmonton definitely on the air map of the world.

A bill to protect teachers' jobs was introduced into the legislature late Friday. It is sponsored by W. Tompny, Social Credit member for Whitford. Dismissal of school teachers would be made effective only after being confirmed by a majority vote of the electors of the school district under the bill. It also provides that the minimum salary for teachers shall be $840 yearly, unless a lower rate was authorized previously to engagement under the act.

NATURAL POSES. "The office boys at our place of business had a sit-down strike for three weeks last month." A sit-down strike for three weeks? Goodness, why didn't you settle it sooner? "Because it was that long before we realized they were striking."

THE BIRD The dutiful nephew took his dear old aunt to a football match. As the game progressed, things happened.

"And why," said the elderly lady eventually, "is that man walking away?"

"He's been sent off for a foul!"

"Dear me, Bertie! Now is that what you mean by getting the bird?"

He: "After all, I'm sure there is no place like home."

She: "Why, has something unpleasant happened at the club, dear?"
